

Aus erster Hand bekam Abel Carlevaro 1943/44 im Haus von Heitor Villa-Lobos in Rio de Janeiro die Erklärung zu den 1940 komponierten Cinq Préludes für Gitarre solo, und Jahrzehnte später, im Februar 1998, durfte Janez Gregorič unter Abel Carlevaros Anleitung dessen Preludios Americanos bei ihm zuhause in der Avenida 18 de Julio in Montevideo studieren. 2011 widmete Gregorič seinem Lehrer zum 10. Todestag die Sammlung Montevideo Revisited, 6 Kompositionen mit einem musikalischen Rückblick auf eine sehr prägende Zeit am Rio de la Plata.

In 1943/44, Abel Carlevaro visited Heitor Villa-Lobos at his home in Rio de Janeiro, where he was given firsthand insight into Cinq Préludes for solo guitar (1940) by the master himself; several decades later, in February of 1998, Janez Gregorič had a similar privilege of studying Preludios Americanos with its composer Abel Carlevaros in his home on Avenida 18 de Julio in Montevideo. In 2011, on the tenth anniversary of Carlevaros's death, Gregorič dedicated his own original work to his teacher – Montevideo Revisited, six compositions which take a musical look back at a very formative time on the Río de la Plata.
